

SOFT SKILLS, LIFE SKILLS AND CULTURAL MENTORING

Exchange and co-planning event

promoted by Melting Pro Learning as part of the strategic partnership

When: Monday 18 December 2023
from 2.30 pm to 7.30 pm

Where: Esperienza Europa – David Sassoli
Piazza Venezia 6c, Rome
Conference room, floor -1

Goals: Starting from the cultural mentoring practices experimented during the European project “Match with Arts and Culture”, Melting Pro opens to the community of trainers, colleagues, enthusiasts and researchers its paths of development of transversal competences and empowerment aimed at those who work in the field of art and culture.

Organized in the form of an interactive workshop, the event will be an opportunity for a discussion on the most effective approaches for the strengthening of cultural operators in an integrated perspective of professional and personal development.

The goal is the construction of new contexts for the creation of knowledge, peer education mechanisms, collaboration and planning that have at their center the development of soft skills and the application of non-formal training methodologies.

Some of the participants of the cultural mentoring path tested as part of the European project will participate in the event, sharing their direct experiences as mentors and mentees.
